

Visit From Father and Matushka Wsewolod Dutikow

ON LABOR DAY weekend, 2009, Archpriest Wsewolod Dutikow and his wife, Matushka Irene, were the guests of the Saint Gregory Palamas Monastery and the Convent of Saint Elizabeth. Father Wsewolod is a Priest of our Sister Church, the Russian Orthodox Church Abroad under Metropolitan Agafangel, and Pastor of the Holy Trinity Church in Astoria, New York. During his visit, Father served with His Grace, Bishop Auxentios and Archimandrite Akakios, Abbot of the Saint Gregory Palamas Monastery, in an Hierarchal Liturgy at the Convent of Saint Elizabeth on the Feast of Saint Evtyches and Saint Cosmas Aitolos. The Orthodox communities in Etna, including the parish of Saints Cyprian and Justina, found a profound oneness of mind and spirit with Father Wsewolod and his Matushka. (See, below, left to right, Matushka Irene, Father Wsewolod, Bishop Auxentios, and Father Akakios.)

